Yokohama is a port town that represents Japan. Since the opening of the Yokohama Port, ships and people have started to come across from all over the world, which led the construction of canals and more urbanized city area around the port. The canals and rivers still exist today as a symbol of urban development.

Water bus

Sea Bass

There are sea buses that go around the famous spots in Yokohama Bay Area. The name of bus is “SEA BASS”. It originates from the fact that it travels back and forth between the freshwater area at the east exit of Yokohama Station and the sea, like a sea bass with a living body that prefers brackish water. Please enjoy the spectacular view of Yokohama from the sea, only in the port city.
