Senjogahara marshland

Lake Yunoko

Tutaki Fall

Lake Chuzenji

Irohazaka Slope

Last week's temperature drop had a positive impact and the trees that hadn't changed yet, began to rapidly show good coloring. The autumn leaves of Okunikko will be over soon, The colors of the leaves in the city are also changing, so we can expect vivid colors this time from now on.

● Feeling Fall

The lakeside of Lake Chuzenji can be enjoyed from weekend to week, and Irohazaka Slope can be enjoyed until next weekend(~11/7). Larch trees (Karamatsu) in Odashirogahara marshland, Senjogahara marshland and Lake Yunoko...known as the "Golden Folding Screen" ... are best time to see now.
