

September 22, 2022.

East Japan Railway Company

Resumption of Narita Express operation

Operation of Narita Express, a limited express train connecting the Tokyo area with Narita Airport, will resume beginning Saturday, October 1, 2022 in accordance with the lift of Japan's border restrictions.

Narita Express has suspended some of its operations due to COVID-19.

1. Operation plans

- Train to resume operation

19 operations of Narita Express, limited express trains between Shinjuku, Tokyo, and Narita Airport Terminal 1 stations

- * All trains between Ofuna, Tokyo, and Narita Airport Terminal 1 stations has resumed operation beginning Saturday, March 12.

- Date of resumption of operation

Saturday, October 1, 2022

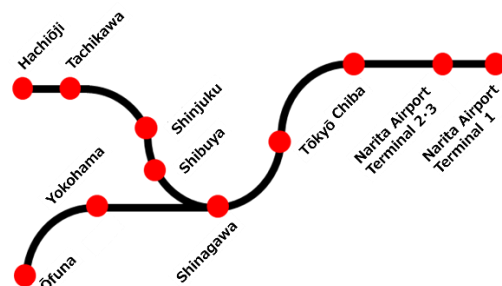

- Seat reservation for trains resuming operation will go on sale: Friday, September 23, 2022

on JR-EAST Train Reservation website: <https://www.eki-net.com/jreast-train-reservation/Top/Index>

【Limited express Narita Express (E259)】

【Narita Express operation segment and main stops】

2. Other information

- See the JR East website for information on measures to stop the spread of COVID-19.

(https://www.jreast.co.jp/e/customer_support/corona-info/index.html)