Akayashio (Rhododendron) near the Akechidaira

Konsei Road

● Nature

The sunny weather on April 25-26th accelerated the rapid flowering of plants, and the akayashio (Rhododendron) was at its best near the Akechidaira.

Cherry blossoms also bloomed along Lake Chuzenji. The progress of the season seems to be about a week earlier than usual.

● Information

On April 25th, the opening ceremony of Mt. Nantai was held and the mountain became open for climbing. Usually, snow would still remain on the mountain.

Konsei Road, which connects the border of Tochigi and Gunma prefectures, is now open.

Likewise, the Sanno Forest Road has also opened, making all access routes to Okunikko usable.
