Kirifuri Highland

Broad Dwarf Daylilies (Kirifuri Highland)

Kotoku Ranch

● Nature

Broad dwarf daylilies (Nikko Kisuge) on Kirifuri Highland are at their best. At the time of the photo, there were many flowers below the middle level, but the steep slopes at the top also appeared yellow. There are many flowers, and this weekend is the best time to see them. It should be beautiful in the upper part next weekend.

In various places along the shores of Lake Chuzenji, multiflora roses are blooming and fragrant. It also started flowering in Senjogahara Marshland, so it might be a good idea to open the car windows while driving. In Senjogahara Marshland, the representative summer flower, the bridewort, has begun to bloom.

● Information

Cattle will arrive at Kotoku Ranch from July 1st, and the restaurant is going to re-open. A new observation deck was also built there.
