■About “Doraemon The Movie: Nobita’s Art World Tales”

Nobita works on his summer vacation homework, “painting,” while watching the news of the discovery of a painting worth billions. While exploring inside the paintings using the secret tool “Hairikomi Light”, he meets a mysterious girl named Claire. Doraemon and his friends accept her request and head for the Principality of Artoria, but to their surprise, they find themselves in a medieval European world as depicted in a painting that has been all over the news!

They find out that somewhere in that world, a mysterious gem called “Artoria Blue” is hidden. What is the world in the picture, the Principality of Artoria? Doraemon and his friends search for the secret of the mysterious gem but the legend of “the world’s destruction” handed down in the Principality of Artoria is revived, and they find themselves in a pinch! Will Nobita and his friends be able to defeat the legend and save the world?!

In theaters Friday March 7th, 2025!
