

Harmonies for a Cause: The Harvard Krokodiloes Return to Shiba Park Hotel

Within the refined setting of Shiba Park Hotel, where over 1,500 carefully selected volumes surround guests in literary charm, an evening of elegance and purpose awaits—reserved exclusively for our valued hotel guests.

Tokyo, Japan - Following the resounding success of last year's event, Shiba Park Hotel is delighted to once again host The Harvard Krokodiloes, Harvard University's acclaimed a cappella group, for a special performance. Dressed in their signature tuxedos, these twelve gifted undergraduate singers will weave their captivating harmonies into the fabric of the hotel's sophisticated ambiance, offering an intimate mini-concert that blends tradition and artistry.

This year, the event carries an even deeper significance. While admission remains free and exclusive to hotel guests, attendees will have the opportunity to support Room to Read, a certified nonprofit organization dedicated to nurturing foundational literacy and life skills in children in underserved communities worldwide. Details regarding donation opportunities will be shared at a later date.

This unique experience is more than an evening of music—it is a celebration of tradition, creativity, and the generous spirit of our guests. Let the harmonious voices of The Harvard Krokodiloes create unforgettable moments while helping bring the joy of reading to children across the globe.

Join us for an exclusive evening where music inspires, tradition thrives, and generosity makes a difference.

Message from The Harvard Krokodiloes

The Harvard Krokodiloes are Harvard University's oldest a cappella group founded at the historic Hasty Pudding Organization. From Cambridge to Cape Town, the Krokodiloes perform for esteemed guests, including US Presidents, Kings, and Billionaires, while traveling to 20+ countries across 5 continents every year. Following last year's successful event, we are thrilled to partner with Shiba Park Hotel once again to make our second trip to Tokyo a reality! This year, we are proud to support Room to Read, helping provide educational opportunities to children and girls worldwide.

Message from General Manager of the Shiba Park Hotel

We are delighted to welcome The Harvard Krokodiloes back to Shiba Park Hotel for a second unforgettable evening. It is our pleasure to provide our hotel guests with an exclusive experience of elegance and music. This year, we are honored to add a meaningful element to the event—a donation opportunity supporting children's literacy through Room to Read Japan. We hope our guests will enjoy the beautiful harmonies while also contributing to a cause that spreads the joy of books to children worldwide.

About Room to Read

Founded in 2000 on the belief that World Change Starts with Educated Children®, Room to Read develops children's foundational literacy skills, as well as life skills that promote gender equality. As a leading implementer, Room to Read nurtures these essential skills in children by training and coaching educators, creating quality learning materials and spaces, and strengthening education systems – all while honoring the dignity of every child. We develop and deliver evidence-based materials and approaches directly and with partners. We are a valuable partner of choice for government, other system and program partners as well as investors focused on education. Committed to accelerating learning outcomes for more children, more quickly, we have benefited more than 50 million children across 28 countries. By the end of 2027, we aim to double the number of children and communities we support each year. Room to Read envisions a world free from illiteracy and gender inequality, where all children have room to read, learn and grow.
