JOIN THE AIZU FESTIVAL PARADE AS A SAMURAI

Held every year in Aizu-Wakamatsu, Japan, the Aizu Festival is a celebration of the region's rich samurai heritage, featuring sword performances, artillery displays and a parade of warriors. Once the site for one of the last battles of the Shogun's reign, you'll visit Tsurugajo Castle and don the traditional armour of a foot-soldier in the gunnery corps of the Aizu Domain. This package also includes the chance to stay at the beautiful Ookawaso inn, where you'll train under a real samurai instructor to hone your swordsmanship skills. Or, join just for a day trip and march alongside your fellow samurai in the shadow of the great castle.

Please contact us if you would like to participate in only part of the experience.
Plastic ponchos as shown above are only used in cases of severe weather.

Other information

Application Procedure and Contract Completion Period

(1) A travel contract is established upon our acceptance of the application made via the WEB or phone, and upon receiving the total travel cost.

(2) As travel fees cannot be collected on-site, full payment of the travel fee is required in advance. Therefore, partial deposits of the application fee are not accepted.

(3) We accept reservations via WEB, telephone, e-mail, etc. However, the contract is not finalized at the point of reservation. The contract is established only upon receiving the travel fee, either within seven days from the day following our receipt of the reservation notification, or by a date specified by us. If the travel fee is not received within this period, we will treat it as if the reservation was not made.

Travel Terms & Conditions (Reservation)

■ Payment of Travel Fees

(1) The travel fee should be settled no later than the 14th day prior to the start of the journey. For last-minute applications, payment must be made by a date specified by our company.

■ Included in the Travel Fee

(1) The travel fee includes the costs of transportation services stated in the itinerary, accommodation, meals, sightseeing fees, travel handling charges, and taxes such as sales tax. It does not include miscellaneous expenses like non-itinerary transportation costs or personal expenses. Please note that refunds are not applicable for any unused portion of the expenses mentioned above due to customer circumstances.

■ Handling of Personal Information

(1) We will utilize the personal information provided by customers during the travel application process solely for the purpose of facilitating communication with the customers and arranging the requested travel services. We will only disclose the information to relevant organizations within the scope of service delivery and receipt.
