

It's happened!

The area amped up to offer a new experience where Guests can blast and cut loose

MINION PARK AREA EXPANDS

Officially Opens on JULY 11, 2025!

Information on the new area, such as a new attraction, unique villain-themed food and merchandise, are available!

Universal Studios Japan is expanding MINION PARK, an area themed to Illumination's Minions, which are popular among a wide range of people both in Japan and overseas, to further enhance the fun and "hachamecha" experience. The grand opening of the area will be Friday, July 11, 2025.

In addition to the existing popular attractions in "MINION PARK" such as "Despicable Me: Minion Mayhem" and "Freeze Ray Sliders", the new "Illumination's Villain-Con Minion Blast", which the park's first ever moving walkway*-style shooting attraction where guests can blast and test their skills with E-Liminator X blaster will debut as an attraction guests of all ages can enjoy. You will join illumination's Minions at Villain-Con and encounter Belle Bottom, Jean Clawed and the rest of the Vicious 6 as you compete to become the newest member of their supervillain group.

Additionally, there will be a number of new entertainment elements including snack stands and stores offering unique food and merchandise developed with mayhem in mind, as well as Minions dressed in all-new costumes, to create an unprecedented experience at the expanded MINION PARK.
