Keio to offer new digital ticket version of tickets related to Mt. Takao and Yomiuri Land to foreigners visiting Japan starting Monday May, 12

For the purpose of facilitating the use of Keio Lines by foreigners visiting Japan, whose numbers continue to increase in recent years, and improving the convenience of Keio Line special passenger tickets, Keio Corporation (Headquarters: Tama City, Tokyo; President and Representative Director: Satoshi Tsumura) will update its three types of tickets related to Mt. Takao and Yomiuri Land* from paper tickets to digital tickets starting Monday, May 12.

*Special passenger ticket sets that combine a 1-day passenger ticket on the Keio Line/Inokashira Line with discounted tickets for various facilities

Key Points

- ① Two types of special passenger tickets for tourists visiting Mt. Takao and one type of ticket for enjoying Yomiuri Land and other facilities located along the Keio Sagami-hara Line will be released in the form of digital tickets.
- ② To accompany this digital ticket release, fees will be revised and the content of the special tickets sets will be modified in part.
- ③ The redeeming of paper tickets will no longer be necessary. Customers can use their tickets with their desired timing on their designated ride date.
- ④ Keio Line/Inokashira Line 1-day passenger tickets are used by holding a 2D code over a ticket gate reader.
