

Aichi-Nagoya City Tour

— Beyond the Excitement of the Games —

01 Tour Exploring Ghibli, Scenic Nature & Crafts

Ghibli Park

A park facility that brings the world of Studio Ghibli to life. Experience the charm of iconic film scenes with all five senses.

Korankei Gorge

One of Aichi's premier scenic spots with breathtaking seasonal nature. Enjoy a relaxing walk through the valley and soak in the soothing landscape.

Setogura Museum

A museum showcasing the lifestyle and over 1,000-year history of Seto pottery. A popular spot to learn about ceramic culture in a fun way.

Inuyama Castle & Castle Town

Explore a National Treasure castle—one of only 12 surviving original keeps in Japan—and its historic castle town. Enjoy traditional streets and local street food.

02 Tour National Treasure Inuyama Castle and Samurai Culture

Nagoya Sword Museum

View the stunning beauty of Japanese swords and the artistry of swordsmiths up close. Experience the deep history and appeal of samurai culture.

03 Tour A Relaxing Journey of Matcha and Pottery

Tokoname Pottery Footpath

Stroll through a charming, nostalgic town featuring historic chimneys, kilns, and earthen pipe walls. Discover the heritage of ceramics and artisan culture.
