

The Biggest Christmas Celebration Ever, Set Against Authentic European Streetscapes
A Breathtaking Christmas Wonderland as Far as the Eye Can See,
Where Japan’s Only Symbol Tree Meets a New Illumination of Falling Stars
A Special miffy & friends Show Debuts, Bringing Exclusive Christmas Cheer
European Holy Christmas | Period: November 6 – December 25, 2026

At Huis Ten Bosch, a theme park resort in Nagasaki Prefecture built around the brand promise “Step into the extraordinary,” a magnificent symbol tree—the only one of its kind in Japan*1—takes center stage in a Christmas wonderland adorned with ornaments as far as the eye can see.

With the addition of a new illumination that envelops the town in twinkling starlight, the Christmas event returns on its largest scale ever*2, creating a breathtakingly beautiful spectacle that will captivate guests.

For the first time, “miffy Christmas” brings special miffy & friends to life exclusively during the Christmas season. The special show “miffy & friends’ Christmas Festival” makes its debut, with miffy and friends appearing in adorable winter outfits. The popular collaboration with “Dick Bruna TABLE” also returns following its great success last year. Guests can enjoy a variety of exclusive offerings, including original Christmas-inspired dishes and sweets available only at Huis Ten Bosch, and spend an enchanting moment with miffy & friends.

Step into a European Christmas filled with breathtaking beauty. At Huis Ten Bosch, where “Excitement Non-Stop!” awaits, share a special Christmas found nowhere else with the people who matter most.

1. This Year, Christmas Decorations Transform the Town on the Biggest Scale Ever*2

This year, the European streetscapes will be adorned with Christmas ornaments such as wreaths and ribbons on the biggest scale ever *2. The “Grand Chandelier Tree,” the only one of its kind in Japan *1, will also return this year. Last year, it captured the hearts of many guests as the symbol of Christmas and became a popular photo spot. This year, new elements will be added to the experience, bringing even more festive splendor to the Christmas town. Starting November 6, the new illumination “The Starlight Million” will also make its debut. Countless twinkling stars will envelop the entire town, creating a fantastical spectacle. The new illumination will blend with the dazzling Christmas setting to create a breathtakingly beautiful scene that will captivate guests.

2. A Christmas Market Filled with the Magic of a European Getaway

The “Christmas Market,” where guests can enjoy seasonal gourmet treats and festive goods, returns this year. Bathed in warm, glowing lights, the charming market is lined with atmospheric stalls offering a tempting selection of seasonal specialties, from crisp and savory Christmas chicken to hearty soups that warm you from the inside out. In addition, the market features Christmas items imported directly from Europe, along with exclusive Huis Ten Bosch merchandise, making it a perfect place to find souvenirs. Surrounded by the enticing aromas of delicious food, the smiles of fellow visitors, and sparkling illuminations, guests can enjoy an enchanting experience reminiscent of a European Christmas market.

3. Events Are Also Elevated, Featuring an Exciting Show Starring Japan’s Only *1 “Grand Chandelier Tree”

The moving night show “Melody of Christmas,” set to beautiful Christmas songs, returns this year. As the magnificent live vocals fill the night, the “Grand Chandelier Tree,” the only one of its kind in Japan *1, lights up in a breathtaking moment, enveloping guests in a special sense of wonder found nowhere else.

The “Santa Greeting,” featuring a special appearance by Santa Claus, will also take place. Guests can enjoy taking commemorative photos with Santa and spending time with him, creating a magical Christmas experience filled with joy and excitement.

4. “miffy Christmas”: Fall in Love with Special miffy & friends, Only This Christmas

For the first time, “miffy Christmas” brings the enchanting miffy & friends you can meet only this season. Enjoy a heartwarming winter filled with special shows, exclusive collaborations, and delightful seasonal treats, all available for a limited time.

At “miffy & friends’ Christmas Festival,” guests can celebrate Christmas with miffy & friends as they make their first appearance in adorable winter outfits. Not only miffy, but also her friends melanie, boris, and grunty will be dressed for the season in cozy scarves and coats. A special show featuring miffy & friends gathered together to celebrate Christmas brings an enchanting experience unique to the season.

The popular collaboration with “Dick Bruna TABLE” will also return this Christmas, following last year’s great success. Details will be announced at a later date.

Other winter-limited Kawaii treats and sweets inspired by the world of miffy will also make their debut, including a Christmas tart sandwich inspired by a starry Christmas wreath and hot drinks inspired by a Christmas tree.
