The Detective Conan Collaboration Evolves Further
Three Major Attractions Arrive, Including a New Restaurant Experience at an All-New Venue

"Detective Conan: The World," where guests can experience the world of "Detective Conan" in super-real detail, will return in 2027.

"Universal Cool Japan 2027" will feature three major attractions: "Detective Conan: The Escape," "Detective Conan Live Restaurant," and "Detective Conan x Story Ride." In particular, the restaurant experience combining fine dining and mystery will renew both its venue and content for the first time since its debut in 2018. Set in the magnificent new dining theater, Peacock Theater, this entertainment restaurant will immerse guests in the world of "Detective Conan" and deliver an unprecedented, live, super-real experience.

"Detective Conan" is one of Japan's leading entertainment works and continues to be loved in more than 20 countries and regions worldwide. Since 2017, Universal Studios Japan has held "Detective Conan: The World," recreating the work's universe on an overwhelming scale and with exceptional quality, and captivating guests with super-real puzzle-solving experiences filled with tension and excitement. Through attractions, restaurants, food, and merchandise that evolve with every edition, the Park creates a comprehensive theme park experience that adds new experiential value to the distinctive appeal of pursuing the truth alongside Conan Edogawa and other popular characters.

More information about the attractions, merchandise, food, and other offerings for "Universal Cool Japan 2027" will be announced in due course. Please look forward to it.
